THE FORGEY OF AMERICAN GREENBACKS IN

SHEFFIELD—THE SENTENCE OF THE FORGEY

—The Manchester Examiner of July 11,

gives the following on the termination of the ## trial of the two individuals charged with ## having forged greenbacks at Sheffield. The ## Examiner says:

Edwin Hides and Henry Light, who, on the previous day, had been found guilty of forging American $10 notes, commonly known as "greenbacks," at Sheffield, this morning brought up for sentence. On the part of the prosecution, Hides had been recommended to the merciful consideration of the Court, and his lordship stated that he took this into account, as well as the good character which had been given him, when he sentenced him to fifteen months' imprisonment. Light, who was deeper in the scheme than Hides, his lordship sentenced to four years' penal servitude.

THE FORTY-FIFTH MOUNTED INFANTRY.

This regiment is being recruited for the ## most agreeable arm of the service. The men

fight on foot, but use their horses for rapid

marches. They are especially useful in re## sisting raids such as the rebels make into

Kentucky. The Regiment will be com## manded by Capt. C. J. True, of the regular army

and a graduate of West Point, who has been ## detailed for the purpose. We have every ## confidence, therefore, that the men will be

properly disciplined, and that military train## ing with their native courage will enable ## them to be of great usefulness in protecting

Eastern Kentucky. One of the Majors of ## the Regiment will be Lieut. Thos. H. Man-

gum, of Mason county, who has seen active

service in the 16th Kentucky, and was one ## of the most popular young officers in that

regiment.—Maysville Eagle.

John Morgan, we told you a long time

ago what your horse-stealing would bring

you to. If you are set to work, please send ## us the first specimen of your workmanship

to be shown to your male and female admir## ers here. Perhaps we will despatch you

thanks with your own telegraph in## strument now on exhibition at our office.

By the way, John, an amorous young widow

kissed the instrument the other day when ## we had just charged it with electricity, and ## she fancied that the tremendous thrill which ## passed through her, almost knocking her

flat on her back, was a thrill of emotion

and love. "Oh!" she exclaimed, "I do

wonder what would happen to me if I were ## to kiss the dear fellow himself!" What do

you suppose would, John?—Prentice.

THE HOSTAGE OFFICERS.—In response to the ## announcement that General Wm. H. F.

Lee and Captain Winder have been placed

in confinement at Old Point, as hostages for ## the two Yankee officers Flinn and Sawyer,

condemned to be shot by the Confederate

authorities, our Commissioner has informed

the Federal Government that the Confed## erate Government will not be intimidated by ## any such threats, and that the execution of ## said officers will take place as soon as the ## President may see fit. It is hoped that the ## Executive will see fit to give the order for ## the execution immediately; and as we have

now over five hundred officers in our hands,

besides some five or six thousand privates, it ## is in the power of the Government to carry ## retaliation to a very bitter extreme. The ## people call for the death of those two Yan-

kees, and it is useless to delay their death

any longer.—Richmond Enquirer.

WEDNESDAY.....AUGUST 12, 1863.

Election Returns.

Since our last issue we have the Official Returns from 22 additional counties, which are published in this number of our paper, and which, when added to the 58 counties previously received and published, will make 80 counties in all reported. The result in these 80 counties is

For Judge Bramlette..... 58,597
For Mr. Wickliffe..... 15,588

Majority for Bramlette..... 43,009

There are yet 30 counties to be reported, which will doubtless increase Judge Bramlette's majority about 9,000 additional votes—an average of 300 majority to the county—making his total majority in the State over 50,000 votes

The Newark Daily Advertiser, speaking of the result of our election, says:

Henry Clay's and Crittenden's old congressional district has been disgraced by the election of an Abolitionist, Brutus Clay, brother of Cassius M. Clay, a pet of this Administration.

The statement that this district has been disgraced, by the election of Brutus J. Clay, is a foul slander upon the intelligence and patriotism of the people of the district—a people, who in point of intelligence, patriotism, conservatism, and a proper knowledge of the political history, and the political wants of the nation, are among the foremost in the land. The charge that Brutus J. Clay is an Abolitionist is an inexcusable slander upon one of the purest patriots in all the nation, who never, at any period of his life entertained an Abolitionist sentiment, or even an emancipation sentiment, and never, in any moment of his life, whether in public life or in his intercourse with the people, in the varied relations which he has borne, done any act, or uttered any word, which could, directly or indirectly, promote Abolition or emancipation. Mr. Clay is above Abolitionism—he has too much sense and too much patriotism to be an Abolitionist. If the Newark Advertiser was as free from the taint of treason, as Brutus J. Clay is of Abolition, it would be fortunate.

Kentucky, and Kentucky statesmen, have been for two years the victims of the ignorance, malignity and hate of Northern Abolitionists and Copperheads; but conscious of her patriotism and wisdom, her people will, as they have always done, steadily pursue the path of duty, honor and dignity.

The National Intelligencer, in speaking of the recent election in this State says: "The members from Kentucky will have a very important position in the next Congress, as it is not unlikely they will hold the balance of power between the Republicans and regular Democrats."

The Kentucky Election and What it Means.

Very few Northern newspapers seem to have a proper appreciation of the meaning and result of our recent election. Some of the Republican papers affect to claim it as a triumph for their cause and an endorsement of the Administration, while on the other hand some partisan Democratic journals look upon it as the result of intimidation on the part of the military. Among the Northern papers, there is one which understands its full force and meaning and views the result of it as honorable to the patriotism and intelligence of the State, and as a triumph of the country, which ought to be held as such by all loyal men everywhere. That staunch Democratic paper, the Boston Post, has the subjoined remarks on the Kentucky election. The Post squarely hits the nail on the head. A just appreciation of the subject could not be conceived.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTION.—The result of the Kentucky election finally anchors this State, not in the turbulent waters of a suicidal radicalism, but in the calm haven of Constitutional liberty. It is a victory over secession and over abolition and for the Union and the laws. It is a victory precisely like that which placed that accomplished and patriotic statesman, Horatio Seymour, in the gubernatorial chair of New York; and because it is this, does it deserve to be hailed as another auspicious omen, worthy of national thanksgiving.

The Union men of Kentucky have had a hard road to travel in; for they have had to contend against the leading measures of the administration which, in this State, tended to strengthen the secession cause, and also against the rebels in arms. But they kept before them the great fact that the administration was one thing and the great government of the fathers was another, and held that the best system ever devised by man ought not to be given over to rebellion because of the adoption of obnoxious measures. Thus they swept everything by the board. So far as is known, the Union Democracy have triumphed by twenty or thirty thousand majority.

The state of things in this State seems not to be fully understood, or if it is understood is grossly perverted. The "Union party" here in the East is the mongrel concern out of which stalk the horns and hoof of radicalism, but in Kentucky it is quite different. It was made up differently by master builders. The Democrats headed by such men as Jas. Guthrie, and the Whigs headed by such as John J. Crittenden, united to form this party, nominated Judge Bramlette, put him on a platform as deadly hostile to the radical schemes as anything we can write. But let us take the words of the Louisville Journal as to the nature of this party. It thus subscribed it, July 1, 1863:—"The whole loyal element of the old Democratic party of Kentucky, together with the whole loyal element of the old Whig party of Kentucky, is and has long been organized under the name of the Union Democracy or Union party of Kentucky, which, from the day of its organization down to the present moment, has been steadily 'in association with those of the North who have stood by the Government and the Constitution throughout this deplorable civil war," and which is at the present moment in such association more directly and distinctly than ever before, and quite as directly and distinctly as the Democracy of any one State of the North is in association with the Democracy of any other. The platform of the Union party of Kentucky has been in truth adopted expressly by the Democracy of Pennsylvania and by the Democracy of New York, and has been adopted virtually by the Democracy of all the other States of the North."

Our columns attest to the heartiness with which we welcomed this noble platform—not so imbued with hatred to abolitionism as to be false to the flag, and not so servile to the Administration as to be untrue to the Constitution; but with wise forecast steering clear of both secession and abolition as it recognized principles as national as the Constitution. This Judge Bramlette heartily supported. We cannot conceive how the Republicans can claim his election as a triumph; or how the result can be claimed as an endorsement of the Administration. The result is honorable to the patriotism and intelligence of the State, is a triumph of the country, and ought to be hailed as such by all loyal men.

General Boyle.

An intelligent correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, in defending General Boyle from what he thought unjust attacks upon him because of his standing as a candidate for Congress, in the recent election, pays the following deserved tribute to his eminent and valuable services in behalf of his State and of the Union.

General Boyle is neither a vain nor a foolish man. To no man, living or dead, in the State, does Kentucky owe more, and to few as much, as she owes to him for the present, loyal and noble position which she holds—a position over which the whole nation is justly and thankfully rejoicing. When the rebellion broke out, he was one of the very first to raise his voice fearlessly in stern and deadly opposition to it. He united, with the lamented and gallant Nelson, the wise and foreseeing Dr. Breckinridge, the eloquent Bell, the dauntless Fry, and our noble Governor-elect, in the establishment of Camp Dick Robinson, and the procurement of the "Lincoln" guns, which saved Kentucky from being precipitated, with Tennessee, into the Southern Confederacy by the hand of conspirators, who so perseveringly plotted, and are still plotting, her ruin. He has gallantly upheld the banner of his country before the people and in the field, from that day to this, with unflinching fearlessness—yet, with justice, moderation, and kindness to friend and foe. He is an ardent and genuine Kentuckian all over, and a true and faithful American, whose heart embraces his country, his whole country, and nothing but his country; and the man who flings at him the reproachful appellation of "copperhead," or intimations, of diminished loyalty, knows not of what he speaks or whereof he affirms.

In order to prevent Quarter Masters and other agents of the Government from stealing, an arrangement has been fixed upon, by which every holder of a voucher must, not only make oath to the same, but give a bond with security, to refund the money, in the event it should turn out that there is any fraud. By this foolish arrangement the poor man, who is unable to give the bond and security, will lose his money. If the authorities would shoot a few Quarter Masters, it would be unnecessary to resort to such impracticable devices to head them in their rascality.

It will turn out, when all the returns are in that the vote for the Union Democratic ticket, will be a majority of the entire legal vote of the State. This will conclusively show that the election was not the result of intimidation. No one was intimidated to vote for the Union ticket, and the only thing that could be said, is that some of the people were, by intimidation, or other improper influences, prevented from voting for the disloyal ticket. The final result, however, will show that there is nothing in this foolish charge, which emanates from a party who were defeated in their disloyal purposes and designs.

The Louisville Democrat, says that "the loyalty of Kentucky is as true as the needle to the pole."

PERSONAL.—Gen. Thos. E. Bramlette, Governor elect, Ex-Gov. Magoffin, and Gen. G. Clay Smith, are in this city, and stopping at the Capital Hotel.

"The Superintendent of Freedmen" at Washington has applied to the military authorities for assistance in enforcing fidelity to the marriage contract among the contrabands.

MAJ. BROWN'S REGIMENT OF VETERAN CAVALRY.—It will be seen by reference to a notice in to-day's paper that MAJ. JOHN MASON BROWN, of the 10th Ky. Cavalry has been authorized to recruit a regiment of VETERAN CAVALRY, to be composed of 9 and 12 months men whose term of service is out or about expiring. The inducements in pay and bounty are more liberal than have at any time been offered.

The details are fully set forth in Maj. B.'s notice, and it will be seen, at a glance, that a splendid opportunity is here open to the many young men in our State, who have so honorably served their State and country.

Major Brown, in addition to the experience which he has had, possesses all the qualities which make him one of the best officers in the service. The brave boys who have been with him for the last 12 months will flock to his standard, and we feel assured, from his high character as a gentleman and an officer, that this regiment will be speedily organized. It will be a regiment of Veterans, led by as gallant and accomplished an officer as ever drew his sword in his country's cause.

The Western Virginia Legislature, in joint session on the 4th inst., elected W. T. Willey, of Morgantown, and P. G. Vanhinkle, of Parkersburg, United States Senators—the former on the first and the latter on the eighth ballot.

FUNERAL OBSEQUES OF MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM NELSON.

No. 84.
RESOLUTION to appoint a committee to make arrangements for the interment of the remains of the late Major General Wm. Nelson, at Camp Dick Robinson.
Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That a committee of two from the Senate, and three from the House of Representatives, be appointed to make such arrangements as may be necessary for the interment of the remains of the late lamented Major General William Nelson at Camp Dick Robinson, where the public soldier established the first camp intended for the defense of Kentucky against invasion and threatened subjugation by the enemies of her peace and tranquility.
Approved January 20, 1863.

The remains of GENERAL NELSON will be removed from the vault in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, to the Depot, on WEDNESDAY afternoon, AUGUST 19th, 1863, whence in charge of an escort, they will be removed to CAMP NELSON, via Lexington, on THURSDAY. The funeral ceremonies will take place at Camp Dick Robinson, on Friday, at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Breckinridge, in speaking of Kentucky, says, "it is a people held by its enemies to be boastful; but they will do always more than they ever say they will do."

The Duquesne Greys, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, who were organized in 1825, and went through the Mexican war as a company of the First Pennsylvania volunteers, exhibits a probably unequalled record in the war for the Union. They have furnished sixty-nine commissioned officers, including one Major-General (Negley), nine Colonels, four Lieut. Colonels, six Majors, twenty Captains, and twenty Lieutenants.

THE DRAFT.—The Provost Marshal General has decided:

1. When drafted men fail to report, the district is not responsible for their desertion any more than for the desertion of members of its quota in the field. The district must, therefore, be credited for them.
2. The paying $300 for "procurement of substitutes" under the law throws upon the Government the responsibility of providing such substitutes, and relieves the district therefrom. It is paid for "procurement of substitutes."
3. The district must present men liable to military service, suitable and acceptable, not exempt. It cannot present for military service to the Government men who are exempt therefrom by law. It must make up for them.

One business man in Chicago returned to the assessor as the profits of his business for the year 1862 the handsome sum of $200,000 upon which he paid a tax amounting to $10,000. The proprietors of a distillery in Buffalo have just paid a Government tax of $50,180.16.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

FRANKFORT, July 2, 1863.

No. 20, Renewal.]

This is to certify, that J. M. Mills, as Agent of the ETNA Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., at Frankfort, Kentucky, has filed in this office the statements and exhibits required by the provisions of an act, entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," approved March 3, 1856; and it having been shown to the satisfaction of the undersigned that said Company is possessed of an actual capital of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as required by said act, the said J. M. Mills, as Agent as aforesaid, is hereby licensed and permitted to take risks and transact business of insurance at his office in Frankfort for the term of one year from the date hereof. But this license may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that since filing of the statements above referred to, the available capital of said Company has been reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof, I have set my hand the day and year above written.
